SKI ME.

Where the action is ... GREAT!

Some of the finest slopes in the East are found in Maine. A national authority on the sport places at least one Maine development among the top four ski areas in the country. Maine skiers and many from distant points find in average years a slightly longer season for their sport. Hills are not so crowded, nor the lift lines so long as in certain other eastern areas, yet Maine slopes are popular to a degree skiers call "just right."

There is a fine network of throughways, turnpike tie-ins with Interstate 95 (Kittery to Houlton) and excellent connecting roads to leading ski areas. With a top speed on many highways in Maine of 60 mph, and 70 mph on Interstate 95 and Me. Turnpike, distances to metropolitan areas like Boston are shortened appreciably. Maine roads are quickly plowed all winter and sanding is continuous when needed.

Modern, adequate accommodations care for overnight or long-term guests. Restaurants are in all area developments. Evening entertainment is exciting and apres ski life attracts hundreds of skiers and their friends to places where fun is fast but wholesome.
